There was a decided decrease in the numher and aggregate of building permits is- TO ENFORCE CONTRACT WITH THEsued during last month, as compared with January of last year. The total amount for January, 1902, was $189,251, a decrease of $75,776. The architects have stated that they expect a greater building season this year than ever before, and are receiving more inquiries and requests for plans. The decrease is not accounted for in the face of these statements unless building is being held back until spring.

Suit of a Laborer.

Charles H. Dean has filed suit against the city of Indianapolis and Charles H. Stuckmeyer for $82.20. He claims that he is entitled to more money than he received 1.00 for working as a street sweeper for the city. The law provides that unskilled labor shall be paid at the rate of 20 cents an our. Dean claims he worked nine hours daily for $1.20. It is stated that Dean's suit is in the nature of a test case and that other sults will be filed.
